

Manuscript for Short Communications

These reports should be concise presentations of preliminary experimental results, instrumentation and analytical techniques, or aspects of clinical or experimental practice that are not fully investigated, verified or perfected but which may be of widespread interest or application. The Editors reserve the right to decide what constitutes a short communications. Abstract should be structured consist of (Introduction, Materials & Methods, Results, Conclusion)

Format Guide

- Authors: up to 6
- Abstract: required, up to 150 words
- Keywords: from the 3 to 8
- Word text limit: 1600 words except references
- References: up to 10
- Tables/Figures: 2 maximum