

Review Article: It should be brief but complete and provide documentation by references. Review articles include a structured abstract. The text is limited to 3000 words, with a maximum of 4 tables and figures and at least 40 references. Also it is highly recommend to use their own associated previously published articles in references.